Under Quartermaster's case may I think be specially dealt with when he was appointed a Supernumerary Sub Asst Surgeon it was intended that he should be transferred to the permanent list at the earliest opportunity He was transferred accordingly in Aug 1902. He is reported to have rendered three years approved service as a Sub Assistant Surgeon. In my humble opinion his service as a Supernumerary may be reckoned and the promotion recommended accordingly.

Sir

In forwarding the enclosed application received from Sub Assistant Surgeon Mr S. Appadurai Prood of the Vaccine Institute, I have the honor to recommend that he be made Assistant Surgeon of the 2nd Grade during the absence on plague duty of Mr P. Palpu or until further orders.

The work in the Institute is very heavy and I am glad that Mr S. Appadurai Prood carries on the duty most satisfactorily.

Sir

I beg to state that since 1st of October 1898 I have been doing the duties of the superintendent of the Vaccine Institute the permanent incumbent Mr. S. Salpin, assistant Surgeon having been deputed for plague duty.

As the post of the Superintendent of the Institute has always been held by an assistant Surgeon and as this grade is now vacant I request that you will be so good as to recommend to Government for my being made an acting assistant Surgeon till such time as the permanent incumbent reverts to his appointment.

I may mention that the work in the Vaccine Institute was hitherto being managed by one Superintendent one assistant Surgeon and one Resident assistant Surgeon, whereas now the whole duties have devolved upon me.

I beg to remain
